dr. charles v. wright, sr.

This year began for Dr. Charles V. Wright, Sr. the tenth year at East Central Junior College. During these years, we have seen many changes. Among these changes are the new Burton Library completed this year and in recent years new buildings for Fine Arts, Agricultural-Technology, Vocational-Technology, and Physical Education. There have been additions to the Cross Science Building, renovations of the old gym for student recreation, new bleachers for the football field, additional tennis courts, and a new baseball diamond. Other recent changes to our campus have been the air conditioning of Todd Hall and of Newcomb Hall and the building of two new boys' dormitories. Our newest classroom building, Newton Hall, was put into use in 1976 and contains a teaching auditorium, faculty office spaces, a communications office, lockers for commuters, and specialized classrooms in addition to regular classroom. Dr. Wright's administration has produced exceptional growth and progress on our campus and still more constructive steps are yet to come.

Occupied at the beginning of the second semester, the new library contains space for 50,00 volumes plus housing for non-book materials. Group study room, a leisure reading area, and individual study carrels provide most of the seating area. Total seating capacity is 250. A faculty reading room, a room for special collections, and a conference room are also in the building. In the lobby is a display case and bulletin board.

dormitory supervisors

Mrs. Desma Kilpatrick - Jackson Hall, Mrs. Sara Gipson - Newsome Hall

Mrs. Kilpatrick plays the role of "other mother" to freshmen girls, many of whom are living away from home for the very first time. Mrs. Gipson serves as a "special person" to the sophomore girls, each one trying to evaluate the steps she is taking here at EC.

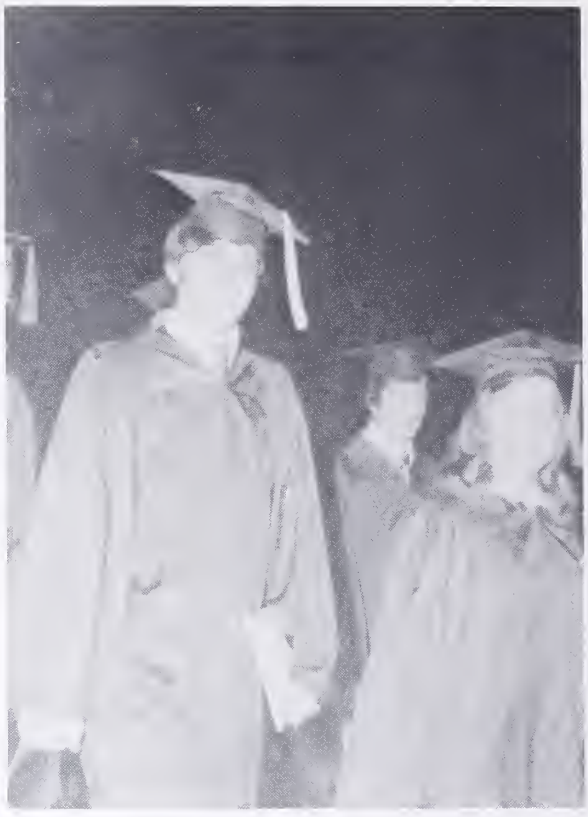
Solid Soul

Cleo Pointer	lead guitar
Gezell Townsend	lead vocal
Terry Campbell	drums
Dwight Fortune	bass
Inez Evans	keyboard
Katherine Donaldson	lead vocal

We also had professional musical groups on campus to play for various dances. "David and the Giants" provided the special touch to the Freshman-Sophomore Prom.

graduation

may 6, 1977



Valedictorians; Jane Hunter
Arlies Savell
Marian Whinnery

Saluatorian; Julie Lathem

Speaker; Dr. J.W. Lewis

We ask if graduation will ever come.
It does, and it is great.

Then we ask, Did we learn enough?
We hope so. "That" time is here.

if variety truly is the "spice of life, ...

. . . . . then the days of our lives should be "pretty spicey."

Classes are not the only things to get our attention.

We take time to smell
the flowers,
And to knock on the door
of "opportunity",
And even take time to examine our soles.

We can ALWAYS find time for food,

And for each other,

And, of course, that special moment for a very serious discussion with friends?

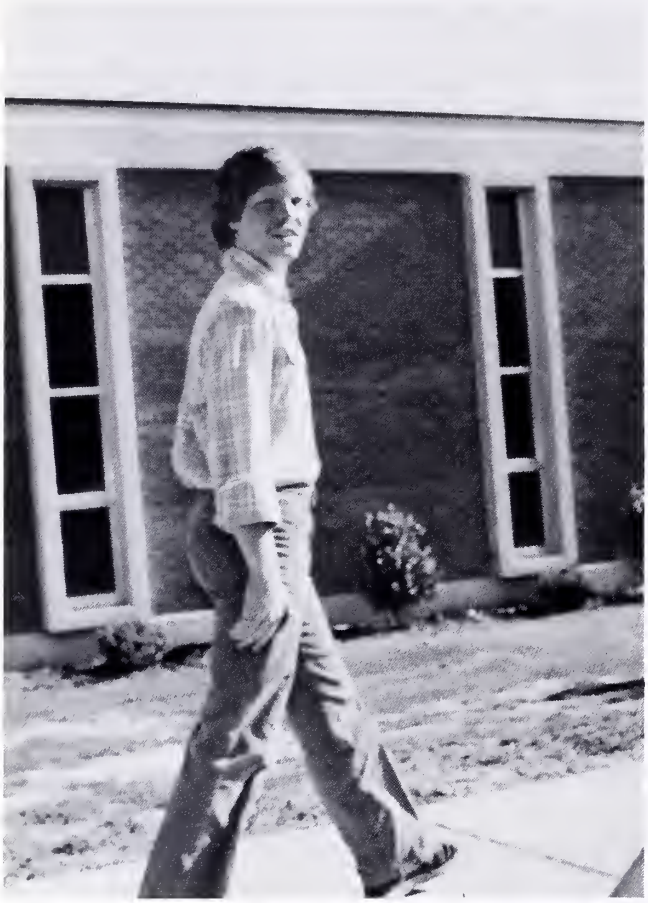
and the "best man" won?

STOP



It's easy to spot an EC student. They are the ones who are always busy doing constructive things. They hurry to class, listen closely, take notes, use the library, and really earn an A for applied effort!

EC students always put first things first. They go to class, do homework, study for tests, and get proper rest before doing any extra things like relaxing or playing. That's what they tell me. It is true, isn't it?

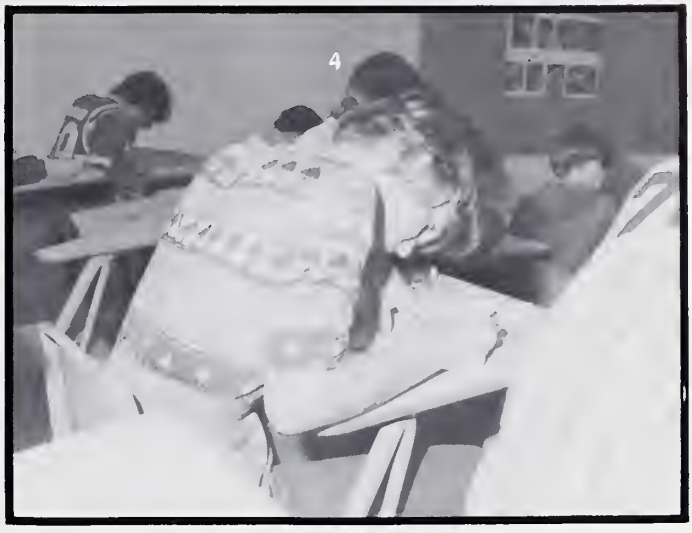
Thinking about it hurts



Taking it is painful

Talking about it doesn't help

Finishing doesn't really make it better

Waiting for it builds the tension

'Cause it all ends up here finally . . .

we can take a load off our . . . feet

and give serious thoughts to our special place in the world.

and so, we zip off to truly important summer activities

. . . until the time comes to take the next big step forward!
